Wisconsin Community Media Announces the 2022 Best of the Midwest Media Fest Winners

Wisconsin Community Media (WCM) is announcing the winners of the 2022 Best of the Midwest Media Fest. The Best of the Midwest Media Fest Banquet and Show, which is open to the public, is being held on Thursday evening, May 12 at the Park Hotel in Madison. Tickets are $50.

The purpose of the fest is to recognize and promote the shows being produced or distributed through Public, Education, and Government Access TV media centers and to provide feedback to producers on their work. WCM has been sponsoring the fest since 1998. In 2012, it opened the fest up to a nine-state region that coincides with the boundaries of the Alliance for Community Media Midwest Region. For several years, the Fest has also welcomed LPFM radio shows to enter.

This year, television and radio producers from Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin working through 36 media centers won 43 Excellence Awards (gold), 54 Achievement Awards (silver) and 48 Merit Awards (bronze). Each program was viewed and critiqued by four judges.

“Best in Show” awards are given to the top scoring programs in ten categories (for all of the winners, see the attached table). This year’s winners in four categories are:

Best Public Access Program. Amateur Level: The Outpost, Producer: Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Chapter 17 Winnebago County; Oshkosh Media. Professional Level: Promo: Eagan Women of Note; Producer: Josh Sibley; Eagan Television.

Best Government Access Program. Oshkosh Aviation Business Park Promo, Oshkosh Media Staff.

Best Educational Access Program. Amateur Level: Spartan Football vs. Jefferson Eagles produced by community producers at WMCF McFarland. Professional Level: Homecoming 2021, Paul Zwicker and Josiah Wampfler, OCA Media, Oregon.

Best LPFM Radio Program. Amateur Level: Around the Block – Women of the Blues produced by Mike Lyster, Oshkosh Media. Professional Level: Radio Access 102.5 Producer Liner, Produced Roger Marks and Ben Smith, Dakota Media Access, Bismarck, ND.

A complete list of all award-winning programs follows.
